

Vesta S. Haydon

Eau Claire, WI/formerly of Black River Falls, WI

Vesta S. Haydon, 95, of Eau Claire, WI/formerly of Black River Falls, WI, passed away peacefully at the Syverson Home, Eau Claire, Wednesday, June 18, 2014 with family by her side.

Vesta was born March 29, 1919, daughter of Harry and Lela Comstock of Merrilan, WI. She graduated from Merrilan High School in 1937. Vesta attended and graduated from Cosmetology school in 1939. She married Bob Haydon on April 4, 1943. They shared 68 years of happiness together and raised three daughters.

After the family was raised she worked a few years at Black River Memorial Hospital. She then followed her dream, owning her own Beauty Shop, eventually working up to three Salons.

Following her retirement, she became an accomplished porcelain china painter. She enjoyed many years of painting. Giving many beautiful gifts of china and selling it at annual bazars. She so enjoyed visiting with everyone during these times.

She and Bob enjoyed travel and were proud to say they had visited all 50 states. They also enjoyed several trips overseas. They were snowbirds for a few years and spending many winters in Florida.

Vesta was very involved in organizations over the years and so enjoyed the socialization. She was a member of the Hatfield and Black River Falls Homemakers Club; the Black River Memorial Hospital Auxiliary. She was also a member of Chapter AP PEO in Eau Claire.

Vesta is survived by her three daughters, Pat (Harold) Felt of Chatfield, MN, Mary Lynn (Donald) Cherry of Rice Lake, WI, and Betsy Kell of Eau Claire; 6 grandchildren; 9 great grandchildren; brothers, Robert (Alice) Comstock of Merrilan, WI, and Raymond (Bernice) Comstock of Florida; many nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Vesta was preceded in death by her husband, Bob; parents, Harry and Lela; brother, Cy Comstock; son in law, John Kell.

Memorial services will be private, followed by burial in East Lawn Cemetery, Alma Center, WI.

Memorials may be given to the Merrilan United Methodist Church.

Jensen-Modjeski Funeral Home of Hixton, WI, is assisting the family with arrangements.
