

Paul F. Weber
1940 - 2016

Paul Frederick Weber, age 76, of Hixton, Wisconsin passed away Wednesday, May 18, 2016 at his home in the care of Black River Memorial Hospice and his loving family.

Paul was born January 12, 1940 in Pewaukee, Wisconsin to Peter and Dorothy (Fluegge) Weber.

Paul served in the U.S. Navy from October 14, 1957 until December 5, 1960.

He married Sherry Himbauch on July 11, 1964 in Pewaukee, Wisconsin. They lived in Pewaukee, Black River Falls, Mukwonago and Hixton. Paul worked as a mechanic for Certified Auto in Black River Falls, Russ Darrow in Waukesha and River Crest Tire & Auto in Mukwonago.

Through the years, Paul and Sherry opened their home to numerous foster children and "Paul and Sherry's orphans" giving them a warm and loving place to live.

Paul enjoyed photography, fly fishing, woodworking and camping in his free time.

Paul is survived by his loving wife of 52 years, Sherry; daughters, Dawn Marie McWilliams of Mukwonago, Wisconsin and Renee Weber of North Prairie, Wisconsin; a son, Mark McWilliams of Mukwonago, Wisconsin; six grandchildren, Duane, Joshua, Jeremy and Grace Anne McWilliams; and Tayler and Erwin Weber. He is further survived by his faithful pets, Tammy and BeeBe.

Paul was preceded in death by his Parents Peter and Dorothy, son Danny Paul Weber and granddaughter, Julie Weber.

Private services will be held at a later date.

Jensen-Modjeski Funeral Home of Hixton is assisting the family.
